Her sister-in-law, Kristine Berg, added the beautiful sunflower quilting design.

Quilt 6 -Hidden Star 25"x25" Wooden Barn Quilt.

Barn quilts started in the mid-west with quilters making wood painted copies of traditional quilt blocks to hang on their barns. Now barn quilts are hung by many quilters and non-quilters on barns, garages, sheds, and fences all over the U.S. Julie Rooney, the creator of this beautiful block, stated, "In Hospice, hope might be hidden or hard to see, but it will come shining through eventually."

Quilt 7 - "Diamond Double" Queen.
The "Diamond Double" (82" x 94") Queen Size quilt is made from 2 - 1/2 inch scrap batik strips, in shades of blue, purple, and pink. Machine pieced and quilted by Marian Huseby.

Quilt 8 - Christmas Wall Hanging. Caryl Spenny, a former Lewistown resident, taught classes here and in Arizona. Her 43" x 43" Christmas wall hanging, "Ripples," is from the book, Magic Stack & Whack by Bethany Reynolds. She used metallic Christmas fabric to piece and quilt on her home sewing machine. She made a hanging sleeve and the binding is two-toned to match the front and back. If possible, check the beautiful quilting on the back.

Quilt 9 - "Beautiful Star" King.

This 102" x 102" quilt is an adapted lone star pattern machine pieced by Cindy Berg and machine quilted by Kristine Berg. The beautiful batik fabrics creating the stars are highlighted by a gold gilded asian print border and star centers in purples, and shades of blues, pinks, and aquas.

Quilt 10 - Birdhouse Collaboration Wall Hanging.

This 60" x 62" wall hanging is a work of art pieced by many community quilters. The original birdhouse blocks were purchased by Carol Swanz at the Vance and Joyce Sheppard estate sale. Joyce has won the blocks in a "Quilted Heart Quilt Store" drawing years ago as part of the block of the month. Tammy Eckhardt of "Sew Pieceful" organized the completion of this colorful wall hanging. Each block is uniquely embellished.

Quilt 11 - Holy Cow Wall Hanging.

This 45" x 57 1/2" wall hanging was adapted by Teresa Otto from an artwork by her sister, who had also adapted her artwork from a magazine picture. The cow's head is an appliqued collage arrangement in multiple bright colors, surrounded by many of your favorite cow sayings in the machine quilting.

Quilt 12 - Fall Throw. This quilt throw in fall leaf colors highlighted with purple will keep you warm with its suede cloth backing. The machine quilting is done in varigated thread in a leaf motif to complement the quilt design. Andra Stone machine pieced this "Mystery Quilts" pattern by Judy Hopkins, and Judy Fraser machine quilted this 45" x 58" throw.
