

Wilcox Ranch Ditch Company Shareholders

The Wilcox Ranch Ditch Company owns the Water Rights to: Hay Canyon Creek and Wilcox Creek

Exhibit WRDWS – Is the allocated shares of the water and its usage

Note: The Exhibit WRDWS – will be updated on new ownership of said properties and any parcel numbers changes, the county may institute.

Each Class A shares represents:

One (1) acre foot of water per year, - per share, subject to availability, for irrigation, as stated in the Wilcox Ranch Ditch Company By-Laws.

Each Class B shares represents:

One (1) acre foot of water per year, - per share, subject to availability, for recreational and storage purposes as stated in the Wilcox Ranch Ditch Company By-Laws.

Water used shall be stored in a pond, to be constructed at the owner's cost, which shall have a maximum surface area of ten thousand (10,000) square feet, and a maximum depth of (6) feet. There shall be a limit of one pond per 40 acres.

All ponds must have an inlet and an outlet, as to not allow the water from continuing to flow.

No existing creek or streams will be altered or and an easement 8 foot in width around the circumference of the pond for ingress and egress purposes to maintain said water storage reservoir.

The right of each property owner to use the water represented by the shares owned shall be subject to compliance with the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, and By-Laws of the Wilcox Ranch Ditch Company.

All approvals required by the Nevada State Water Engineer and the laws of the State of Nevada, and the availability of the water due to climatic reasons. In the event the supply of water is short due to climatic reasons, the water will be apportioned on a prorated basis among all qualified users.