Inspections may include, but are not limited to, the following: Well & Septic, Survey, Environmental Conditions, Crop Base and Farm Program participation. By acceptance of this agreement Seller gives Buyer permission to review records of all farm programs of which this property participated and gives consent to the appropriate agency to release such information to the Buyer. 12. Access to Property. Seller shall provide reasonable access to Buyer, Buyer's inspectors or agents to timely fulfill this Agreement and to representatives of Buyer's lender to accommodate financing. 13. Crop Base. If this transaction divides an existing USDA farm, Seller and Buyer shall take all action required to have the USDA crop base fairly and equitably assigned and allocated to the Real Estate through the FSA office. 14. Agricultural Program Payments. \square If checked, the Seller receives Agricultural Program Payments related to this property. Seller shall receive all USDA, NRCS, or other agricultural program payments arising out of or related to the _____ crop and crop year and all prior years. Buyer shall receive all such payments in subsequent years. 15. Compliance with Law. Seller shall comply with all federal, state and local laws applicable to the sale or transfer of the property, including but not limited to installing smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors. 16. Maintenance/Repairs/Replacements Cost to Seller. Seller agrees to maintain the property in its condition on the date hereof until initial delivery of possession which maintenance shall include, but not be limited to: fixtures, fences, wells and pumps, the buildings, heating, air conditioning, water heater, sewer, plumbing, electrical system, underground sprinkler system, personal property, lawn care and snow removal. 17. Final Walk Through. Buyer shall have the right to make a final inspection of the property prior to closing to assure that all conditions of this Agreement have been met. 18. Responsibility of Insurance and Risk of Loss. Seller shall insure the property for fire, wind, hail, explosion, water or any other cause at no less than purchase price until closing. Risk of loss or damage to Property, prior to closing, shall be the responsibility of Seller. If prior to closing the structure on the Property is materially damaged, Seller shall immediately notify the Buyer in writing of the damage. Buyer, at Buyer's choice, may: 1) Rescind this Agreement OR 2) Take the property subject to the damage with the Seller paying to the Buyer the insurance proceeds and deductible for the restoration of the property or at a price discounted by the cost of restoration of the premises. 19. Real Estate Taxes and Prorations. Seller shall pay all taxes for the years prior to the year of closing. Taxes for the year of closing shall be paid by the party who receives the rents/harvest [or] prorated to date of closing. Prepaid utilities, propane or heating fuel, if any, shall be prorated to the date of closing. Taxes shall be prorated based upon the county assessor's valuation at the date of closing and the most recently certified mill levy. 20. Closing and Possession. The closing of the sale shall be on the . Possession of Property shall be given upon closing. This Agreement shall in no manner be construed to convey the Property or to give any right of possession. 21. Escrow Closing. Buyer and Seller agree that the closing of the sale may be handled by an escrow agent. If so, any broker holding the earnest money or other trust funds is authorized to transfer such items to the escrow agent. All documents and other items received by any broker in connection with the sale shall also be transferred to the escrow agent. After the transfer, a broker shall have no further responsibility or liability to Buyer or Seller to account for funds or preparation of documents in connection with the closing of the sale. Escrow agent will not be required to disburse funds, deliver or record any documents until it has received sufficient certified funds or equivalent and all terms of this Agreement have been satisfied. Escrow closing charges shall be equally divided between Buyer and Seller. 22. Compensation. In addition to any compensation offered by Seller's limited agent to Buyer's limited agent for cooperation, Buyer agrees to pay Buyer's agent compensation of $ at closing. If this compensation is paid by Buyer to buyer's agent, Seller and Buyer agree that buyer's agent, which may be the same as the Seller's agent, may collect compensation from both Seller and Buyer. 23. Counterparts, E-Mail, and Fax Transmission. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which is deemed to be an original hereof, and all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. The facsimile or e-mail transmission of a signed copy hereof or any counter offer to the other party or their agent with confirmation of transmission shall constitute delivery. The parties agree to confirm delivery by mail or personal delivery of a signed copy to the other party or their agent.

24. Default, Rescission, Failure of Contingency or Termination. If Buyer defaults on the performance of this Agreement, Seller may, at Seller's option, retain the earnest money as liquidated damages for such failure, or utilize such other legal remedies as are available to Seller by reason of such failure. If this Agreement is void by failure of contingency or is rescinded or terminated by either party without fault as allowed hereby, each party shall bear their costs and the earnest money shall be refunded to the Buyer. 25. Do Not Call Provision. Seller and Buyer authorize telephone, facsimile and other electronic means of contact by individuals on behalf of the Seller's broker and Buyer's broker, if different, as well as other service providers in the transaction. 26. Addenda. The attached addenda shall be made a part of the Purchase Agreement. (List Addenda) (Seller: ____/ ____ Buyer: ____/ ____) acceptance is delivered to the Buyer's limited agent or their Broker's office or the Buyer. 28. Mediation and Arbitration. [If checked] (a) Disputes. The term "Dispute" shall include, without limitation, any controversy, complaint, dispute, claim or disagreement relating to or arising out of the brokerage relationship or the construction, interpretation, enforcement, or breach of the terms of this Agreement or any actions of the parties or their agents in the sale and purchase of the described property including claims of misrepresentation and claims under §21-2120 (Seller Property Condition Disclosure) of the Nebraska Revised Statues. (b) Mediation. In the event of any Dispute, any party to the Dispute may seek non-binding mediation in an attempt to resolve the Dispute by giving 15 days written notice of a request for such mediation to all other parties to the Dispute. The request for mediation must be made within 360 days after the party making the request knew, or exercising reasonable diligence and care, should have known, of the Dispute. In no case shall such request be made after the statute of limitations on a civil suit based on the Dispute would have run. Such mediation shall be held in Nebraska. Such mediation may be administered by the American Arbitration Association and shall be conducted according to the American Arbitration Association's Commercial Rules-Real Estate Industry Arbitration Rules (Including a Mediation Alternative) or such other mediation service versed in real estate practices of the locality. (c) Arbitration. Any Dispute that is not resolved by informal settlement or mediation shall be resolved exclusively by binding arbitration. Such arbitration shall be held in Nebraska. Such arbitration may be administered by the American Arbitration Association or such other arbitration provider agreed to by the parties. It shall be conducted according to the American Arbitration Association's Commercial Rules-Real Estate Industry Arbitration Rules (Including a Mediation Alternative). The arbiter(s) shall apply Nebraska substantive and procedural law to the arbitration proceeding. Arbitration shall be commenced by written demand made by any one or more of the parties to the Dispute given to all other parties to the Dispute. The demand for arbitration must be in writing and must be given by personal delivery or certified mail, return receipt requested, within 360 days after the party making the demand knew, or exercising reasonable diligence and care, should have known, of the Dispute. Notwithstanding the previous sentence, in the case that the parties unsuccessfully attempt mediation to resolve a Dispute, the demand for arbitration shall be made within 60 days of the final mediation session. However, in no case shall such demand be made after the statute of limitations on a civil suit based on the Dispute would have run. The prevailing party shall be entitled to costs and fees of the arbitration and, in the discretion of the arbitrator who shall take into account the relative merits of the opponent's case, the arbiter may award attorney's fees to the prevailing party. In determining prevailing party, prevailing party shall be that party for whom the result most closely, in the arbiter's opinion, resembles that party's last offer for settlement of the controversy. (d) Provisional Remedies. The filing of a judicial action to enable the reporting of a notice of pending action, for order of attachment, receivership, injunction, or other like provisional remedies, shall not constitute a waiver of mediation or arbitration under this provision, nor shall it constitute a breach of the duty to arbitrate. (e) Exclusions. The terms of paragraph 28 shall not apply to: (1) Any complaint of violation of the Code of Ethics of the National Association of REALTORS[®]; (2) Foreclosure or other action or proceeding to enforce a deed of trust, mortgage or land contract; or (3) The filing or enforcement of a construction or similar lien including a commercial broker's lien. (4) An action filed and held in "Small Claims Court" as defined in Neb. Rev. Stat. 25-2801 to 25-2804, provided, however, any attempt to transfer a matter filed in small claims court to county court shall be subject to paragraph 28. © 2018 Nebraska REALTORS® Association
