DUAL AGENCY

Ohio law permits a real estate agent and brokerage to represent both the seller and buyer in a real estate transaction as long as this is disclosed to both parties and they both agree. This is known as dual agency. As a dual agent, a real estate agent and brokerage represent two clients whose interests are, or at times could be, different or adverse. For this reason, the dual agent(s) may not be able to advocate on behalf of the client to the same extent the agent may have if the agent represented only one client.

As a dual agent, the agent(s) and brokerage shall:

- Treat both clients honestly;
- Disclose latent (not readily observable) material defects to the purchaser, if known by the agent(s) or brokerage;
- Provide information regarding lenders, inspectors and other professionals, if requested;
- Provide market information available from a property listing service or public records, if requested;
- Prepare and present all offers and counteroffers at the direction of the parties;
- Assist both parties in completing the steps necessary to fulfill the terms of any contract, if requested.

As a dual agent, the agent(s) and brokerage shall not:

- Disclose information that is confidential, or that would have an adverse effect on one party's position in the transaction, unless such disclosure is authorized by the client or required by law;
- Advocate or negotiate on behalf of either the buyer or seller;
- Suggest or recommend specific terms, including price, or disclose the terms or price a buyer is willing to offer or that a seller is willing to accept;
- Engage in conduct that is contrary to the instructions of either party and may not act in a biased manner on behalf of one party.

Compensation: Unless agreed otherwise, the brokerage will be compensated per the agency agreement.

Management Level Licensees: Generally, the principal broker and managers in a brokerage also represent the interests of any buyer or seller represented by an agent affiliated with that brokerage. Therefore, if both buyer and seller are represented by agents in the same brokerage, the principal broker and manager are dual agents. There are two exceptions to this. The first is where the principal broker or manager is personally representing one of the parties. The second is where the principal broker or manager is selling or buying his own real estate. These exceptions only apply if there is another principal broker or manager to supervise the other agent involved in the transaction.

Responsibilities of the Parties: The duties of the agent and brokerage in a real estate transaction do not relieve the buyer and seller from the responsibility to protect their own interests. The buyer and seller are advised to carefully read all agreements to assure that they adequately express their understanding of the transaction. The agent and brokerage are qualified to advise on real estate matters. IF LEGAL OR TAX ADVICE IS DESIRED, YOU SHOULD CONSULT THE APPROPRIATE PROFESSIONAL.

Consent: By signing on the reverse side, you acknowledge that you have read and understand this form and are giving your voluntary, informed consent to the agency relationship disclosed. If you do not agree to the agent(s) and/or brokerage acting as a dual agent, you are not required to consent to this agreement and you may either request a separate agent in the brokerage to be appointed to represent your interests or you may terminate your agency relationship and obtain representation from another brokerage.

Any questions regarding the role or responsibilities of the brokerage or its agents should be directed to: attorney or to:

CONSUMER GUIDE TO AGENCY RELATIONSHIPS

We are pleased you have selected United Country Real Estate and Auction Services, LLC to help you with your real estate needs. Whether you are selling, buying or leasing real estate, we can provide you with expertise and assistance. It is important to understand the role of the agents and brokers with whom you are working. Below is some information that explains the various services that United Country Real Estate and Auction Services, LLC can offer and our options for working with you.

Permissible Agency Relationships in Ohio:

Representing Sellers

Most sellers of real estate choose to list their property for sale or lease with a real estate brokerage. When sellers do so, they sign a listing agreement that authorizes the brokerage and the listing agent to represent their interests. As the seller's agent, United Country and Real Estate Services, LLC and the listing agent must: follow the seller's lawful instructions, be loyal to the seller, promote the seller's best interests, disclose material facts to the seller, maintain confidential information, act with reasonable skill and care and account for any money they handle in the transaction.

Representing Buyers

When purchasing or leasing real estate, buyers usually choose to work with a real estate agent as well. Often the buyers want to be represented in the transaction. This is referred to as a buyer's agency. United Country Real Estate and Auction Services, LLC, and the buyer's agent that represents a buyer's interest in a transaction must: follow the buyer's lawful instructions, be loyal to the buyer, promote the buyer's best interests, disclose material facts to the buyer, maintain confidential information and account for any money they handle in the transaction.

Dual Agency

Occasionally the same agent who represents the seller also represents the buyer. This is referred to as dual agency. When United Country Real Estate and Auction Services, LLC and its agents become "dual agents," they must maintain a neutral position in the transaction. United Country Real Estate and Auction Services, LLC and the agent may not advocate the position of one client over the best interests of the other client, or disclose any confidential information to the other party without written consent.

In the event that you refuse to consent to the dual agency or seek to terminate the agency relationship as a result of the proposed dual agency management may determine which agency relationship to terminate. You may request that a separate agent United Country Real Estate and Auction Services, LLC be appointed to represent your interests or you may terminate your agency relationship and seek representation from another brokerage, however, you may be obligated to pay a commission to us.

Different Agents Representing the Buyer & Seller

On occasion, the buyer and seller will each be represented by two different agents from United Country Real Estate and Auction Services, LLC. In this case the agents may each represent the best interest of their respective clients but, United Country Real Estate and Auction Services, LLC and its management level licensees will be considered dual agents. As a dual agent, its management level licensees will maintain a neutral position and cannot advocate for the position of one client over another. We will also protect confidential information of both parties.

Sub-agency

United Country Real Estate and Auction Services, LLC does not act as a subagent nor allow other brokerages to act as a subagent for a seller. Sub-agency refers to when a brokerage, in this case United Country Real Estate and Auction Services, LLC, hires a separate and unaffiliated brokerage to work on the Client's behalf, as a "sub-agent" of United Country Real Estate and Auction Services, LLC. United Country Real Estate and Auction Services, LLC does not accept and will not offer Sub-agency.

Cooperating With Other Brokerages

United Country Real Estate and Auction Services, LLC will cooperate with other brokerages on an equal and consistent basis. This means United Country Real Estate and Auction Services, LLC will make its listings available to other brokerages to show, provide information that is not confidential, and present all offers written by other brokerages in a timely and objective manner. A buyer's broker may be compensated by a seller through an United Country Real Estate and Auction Services, LLC offer of compensation, unless specifically requested otherwise by the seller, even though the buyer's broker represents the buyer's interests. Alternatively, a buyer's broker may be compensated directly by the buyer pursuant to an agreement between buyer and buyer's broker. We do reserve the right, in circumstances, to vary compensation offered through marketing services. United Country Real Estate and Auction Services, LLC will not offer compensation to nor cooperate with sub-agents.

Fair Housing Statement – Residential Transactions & Vacant Land

It is illegal, pursuant to the Ohio Fair Housing Law, division (H) of Section 4112.02 of the Revised Code and the Federal Fair Housing Law, 42 U.S.C.A. 3601, as amended, to refuse to sell, transfer, assign, rent, lease, sublease or finance housing accommodations, refuse to negotiate for the sale or rental of housing accommodations, or otherwise deny or make unavailable housing accommodations because of race, color, religion, sex, familial status as defined in Section 4112.01 of the Revised Code, ancestry, military status, disability as defined in that section, or national origin or to so discriminate in advertising the sale or rental of housing, in the financing of housing, or in the provision of real estate brokerage services. It is also illegal, for profit, to induce or attempt to induce a person to sell or rent a dwelling by representations regarding the entry into the neighborhood of a person or persons belonging to one of the protected classes.

We hope you find this information to be helpful to you as you begin your real estate transaction.
