

Experience the charm of Southern living in this meticulously landscaped Classic Louisiana Style Creole Influenced Home, crafted in 2008 by renowned artisan Juan Smith. Owned by a lumber yard proprietor, it boasts top-quality materials like yellow heart pine flooring and 308-year-old cypress beams. The gourmet kitchen features commercial-grade appliances and a sunlit breakfast nook overlooking a courtyard fountain. Two ground-floor suites offer spa-like baths, while the living room with a double-sided fireplace opens to scenic views. French doors in the dining room lead to a front porch, and the back porch overlooks a landscaped yard with a gazebo and built-in grill. An elevator provides easy access to the second floor, which includes an ensuite bedroom, two additional bedrooms sharing a well-appointed bathroom, and a spacious storage room. The property also includes a 3-car attached garage. Strategically located near historical sites, a military museum, and the Mississippi River, this home offers convenient access from New Orleans and Jackson. Don't miss the chance to own this Creole masterpiece and embrace the elegance and comfort of Southern living!
