DUAL AGENCY

Ohio law permits a real estate agent and brokerage to represent both the seller and buyer in a real estate transaction as long as this is disclosed to both parties and they both agree. This is known as dual agency. As a dual agent, a real estate agent and brokerage represent two clients whose interests are, or at times could be, different or adverse. For this reason, the dual agent(s) may not be able to advocate on behalf of the client to the same extent the agent may have if the agent represented only one client.

As a dual agent, the agent(s) and brokerage shall:

- Treat both clients honestly;
- Disclose latent (not readily observable) material defects to the purchaser, if known by the agent(s) or brokerage;
- Provide information regarding lenders, inspectors and other professionals, if requested;
- Provide market information available from a property listing service or public records, if requested;
- Prepare and present all offers and counteroffers at the direction of the parties;
- Assist both parties in completing the steps necessary to fulfill the terms of any contract, if requested.

As a dual agent, the agent(s) and brokerage shall not:

- Disclose information that is confidential, or that would have an adverse effect on one party's position in the transaction, unless such disclosure is authorized by the client or required by law;
- Advocate or negotiate on behalf of either the buyer or seller;
- Suggest or recommend specific terms, including price, or disclose the terms or price a buyer is willing to offer or that a seller is willing to accept;
- Engage in conduct that is contrary to the instructions of either party and may not act in a biased manner on behalf of one party.

Compensation: Unless agreed otherwise, the brokerage will be compensated per the agency agreement.

Management Level Licensees: Generally, the principal broker and managers in a brokerage also represent the interests of any buyer or seller represented by an agent affiliated with that brokerage. Therefore, if both buyer and seller are represented by agents in the same brokerage, the principal broker and manager are dual agents. There are two exceptions to this. The first is where the principal broker or manager is personally representing one of the parties. The second is where the principal broker or manager is selling or buying his own real estate. These exceptions only apply if there is another principal broker or manager to supervise the other agent involved in the transaction.

Responsibilities of the Parties: The duties of the agent and brokerage in a real estate transaction do not relieve the buyer and seller from the responsibility to protect their own interests. The buyer and seller are advised to carefully read all agreements to assure that they adequately express their understanding of the transaction. The agent and brokerage are qualified to advise on real estate matters. IF LEGAL OR TAX ADVICE IS DESIRED, YOU SHOULD CONSULT THE APPROPRIATE PROFESSIONAL.

Consent: By signing on the reverse side, you acknowledge that you have read and understand this form and are giving your voluntary, informed consent to the agency relationship disclosed. If you do not agree to the agent(s) and/or brokerage acting as a dual agent, you are not required to consent to this agreement and you may either request a separate agent in the brokerage to be appointed to represent your interests or you may terminate your agency relationship and obtain representation from another brokerage.

Any questions regarding the role or responsibilities of the brokerage or its agents should be directed to: attorney or to:

Upon receipt of Buyer's written notice of an objection permitted herein, the Seller shall, within (30) calendar days, remedy or remove any such defect, lien, encumbrance, easement, condition, restriction, or encroachment, or obtain title insurance without exception therefor. The date of closing shall be extended to the extent necessary to accommodate Seller's efforts to remedy or remove items subject to the objection. Failure of the Seller to cure the Buyer's objection shall result in the termination of this Contract. Seller is not obligated to incur any expense in curing Buyer's objection. If the cure of the objection will subject the Seller to additional expense, Seller shall have the option to either cure the objection at Seller's expense or terminate the Contract by delivering a written Notice of Termination to the Buyer or Buyer's Broker. Buyer's failure to object as permitted herein constitutes a waiver of Buyer's right to object.

If the Real Estate should be damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty and if, prior to the Closing Date, the Real Estate shall not be repaired or restored, by and at the Seller's expense, to a condition substantially as good as it was prior to the damage or destruction, then Buyer, at Buyer's option, may terminate this Contract by written notice to Seller and the Down Payment shall be returned to Buyer. While this Contract is pending, Seller shall not modify any existing lease or enter into any new lease, nor make any substantial alterations or repairs without the consent of the Buyer. In addition, Buyer may have an insurable interest in the Real Estate from the date of this Contract and, to the extent that Buyer has an insurable interest in the Real Estate, Buyer is hereby notified that Buyer should obtain any insurance coverage desired by Buyer on the Real Estate immediately to protect Buyer's interest.

As the seller's agent, United Country and Real Estate Services and the listing agent must: follow the seller's lawful instructions, be loyal to the seller, promote the seller's best interests, disclose material facts to the seller, maintain confidential information, act with reasonable skill and care and account for any money they handle in the transaction.

When purchasing or leasing real estate, buyers usually choose to work with a real estate agent as well. Often the buyers want to be represented in the transaction. This is referred to as a buyer's agency. United Country Real Estate and Auction Services, and the buyer's agent that represents a buyer's interest in a transaction must: follow the buyer's lawful instructions, be loyal to the buyer, promote the buyer's best interests, disclose material facts to the buyer, maintain confidential information and account for any money they handle in the transaction.

When United Country Real Estate and Auction Services and its agents become "dual agents," they must maintain a neutral position in the transaction. United Country Real Estate and Auction Services and the agent may not advocate the position of one client over the best interests of the other client, or disclose any confidential information to the other party without written consent.

You may request that a separate agent United Country Real Estate and Auction Services be appointed to represent your interests or you may terminate your agency relationship and seek representation from another brokerage, however, you may be obligated to pay a commission to us.

On occasion, the buyer and seller will each be represented by two different agents from United Country Real Estate and Auction Services this case the agents may each represent the best interest of their respective clients but, United Country Real Estate and Auction Services and its management level licensees will be considered dual agents. As a dual agent, and its management level licensees will maintain a neutral position and cannot advocate for the position of one client over another.
