6. Optional Seller Concession

Seller concessions are payments that a seller agrees to contribute toward buyer expenses. Costs that concessions may be applied to include, but are not limited to, costs of title, lender fees, repairs, inspections, surveys, closing attorney fees, and buyer broker compensation. Depending on MLS rules, a seller concession offer may be permitted in the MLS listing but must first be authorized in writing by Seller. Seller may not specify which expense(s) the buyer is permitted to apply concession funds toward.

Seller ☒ does not authorize OR ☐ authorizes a Seller Concession offer. If applicable and known, list Concession amount or rate:

8. Seller's Duties – Seller agrees to:

a) cooperate in the sale of Property, including timely responding to communications from Broker/Agent, referring all inquiries about the Property to Broker/Agent promptly, allowing access to the Property, and furnishing Broker/Agent with keys to the Property; b) make Property available for showing to prospective buyers during reasonable hours with reasonable notice; c) timely review all offers presented by Broker/Agent; d) negotiate in good faith through the Broker to sell the property; e) act in good faith toward the completion of any contract entered into for the sale of the Property; f) carefully read all disclosures, reports, and contracts and comply with the duties and deadlines contained therein; g) pay for reports, investigations, or services provided by professionals which Seller hires; h) convey a merchantable title; i) prorate taxes, leases, and/or association fees through the date of conveyance of title; j) resolve all public improvements, assessments, and encumbrances unless otherwise agreed upon in writing; and k) abide by all terms of this Agreement.

9. Broker's/Agent's Duties to Seller – Broker/Agent's sole duties to Seller are:

a) assist with marketing the Property; b) present all offers to purchase received by Broker/Agent; c) present all offers for sale authorized by Seller; d) assist, to the extent requested by Seller, in negotiating the terms of and filling out a pre-printed real estate sales contract; and e) follow all applicable laws in performing these duties, including the Real Estate Consumer's Agency and Disclosure Act (RECAD), Ala. Code § 34-27-80, et seq.

10. Limitations of Broker's/Agent's Responsibilities – Seller understands and agrees that Broker/Agent is not:

- a. an expert on property condition, structural integrity, hazardous conditions, property boundaries, zoning, square footage, electrical and plumbing systems, flood zones, financial planning, taxes, mortgages, or other areas requiring special expertise. Seller should seek expert advice from independent professionals regarding any of these matters. Broker/Agent will not warrant the performance of any such professional and is not liable for any acts or omissions by any such professional;
- b. licensed to practice law and cannot give legal advice. Seller should obtain legal advice from a licensed attorney regarding any

- matter of concern regarding this Agreement or any documents the Seller may be presented for the sale of the Property;
- c. responsible for ensuring that Seller complies with the duties and deadlines contained in any purchase agreement entered into by Seller and that Seller shall be solely responsible for such performance; and
 - d. responsible to monitor, supervise, or inspect any portion of construction or repairs to the Property.

11. Marketing the Property – Seller gives Broker/Agent the exclusive right to:

12. Dual Agency and Conflict of Interest

Under Alabama law, the Company/ Broker/Agent may legally represent both Seller and the buyer in the same transaction (called Limited Consensual Dual Agency) but may only do so with the written consent of both the buyer and Seller. Since Company/Broker/Agent represents both sides of the same transaction, there may be a limitation on the Company/ Broker/Agent’s ability to represent either party fully and/or exclusively. Seller ☒ will allow ☐ will not allow Limited Consensual Dual Agency. If Seller and the buyer authorize Limited Consensual Dual Agency, Seller agrees to complete a Limited Consensual Dual Agency Agreement.

13. Earnest Money

Any earnest money provided in connection with a Purchase Agreement will be held in trust according to the terms of the Purchase Agreement. If such Purchase Agreement is accepted and signed by all parties but does not close, a mutual release signed by all parties to the Purchase Agreement will be required to disburse the earnest money. If a dispute over earnest money arises and an Alabama real estate licensee holds the funds, the licensee may (1) retain the funds until there is a written mutual release from all parties; (2) interplead the disputed funds into the appropriate court (in which case the licensee is entitled to deduct court costs, attorney fees, and similar expenses related to the interpleader from the earnest money); or (3) disburse the funds according to the non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction. (See Alabama Real Estate License Law Rule: 790-X-3-.03.)

14. Improvements and Appurtenances

The purchase price will include all dwellings, storage buildings, improvements, and appurtenances that are presently in and on the Property. Any of these items that are to be excluded from sale, or additional items that are to be included in the sale, must be agreed upon in the Purchase Agreement to be binding. The following is for planning purposes only:

Additional items to remain: _____

These items are to be excluded from sale: _____

15. Lead-Based Paint

If Property is a residential dwelling, was it constructed prior to 1978? ☐ Yes ☐ No.

If yes, federal law requires a lead-based paint disclosure statement to be provided to prospective buyers.

16. Wood Infestation Report

Under the terms of the Purchase Agreement, Seller may be required to furnish the buyer with a written Alabama Wood Infestation Report issued by a licensed pest control company. The Wood Infestation Report must be dated according to the terms of the Purchase Agreement. Seller ☐ does ☒ does not have a current termite contract in place for this Property. Seller ☐ is ☒ is not aware of any previous termite infestation or damage.

17. Disclosure

Seller authorizes Broker/Agent to disclose the following, as required by law: 1) known defects and conditions that affect health/ safety and are not known or readily observable to the buyer; 2) disclosures that must be provided when Broker/Agent has a fiduciary duty to the buyer; and 3) instances of specific inquiry by the buyer. Broker/Agent does not have the responsibility to discover latent defects.

Property Disclosure - Seller ☐ will provide ☒ will not provide a Property Condition Disclosure Statement. (NOTE: Neither Alabama law nor REALTOR® Association rules require a Property Condition Disclosure Statement.)

Flood Plain - Seller ☐ is ☒ is not aware whether the Property lies in a flood plain. Seller ☐ does ☒ does not presently have a flood insurance policy.

Community Associations – Property ☐ is ☒ is not subject to Homeowner (“HOA”)/ Condominium Association/ other similar association fees ☐ unknown. If Property is subject to association fees, Seller agrees 1) to complete a Community Association Disclosure and 2) to pay any outstanding fees prior to or at closing.

18. Agency/ Brokerage Services Disclosure

As required by Alabama law, Broker/Agent has provided Seller with a Real Estate Brokerages Services Disclosure Form describing the alternative types of brokerage services available and the specific types of brokerage services that are available from Broker/ Agent.

19. Seller’s Warranty of Authority and Accuracy; Seller’s Hold Harmless

Seller warrants that (s)he has complete authority to sell Property and to convey title by deed. If the title to Property is not merchantable, Broker/Agent may terminate this Agreement. If Seller has an executed Purchase Agreement for Property but has not closed with the owner of title, Seller warrants that this assignment of equitable title has been approved by the holder of legal title to the Property, and any legal documents related to the Property (covenants, HOA documents, etc.) will not prevent transfer of title to another buyer.

Seller has reviewed this Agreement. All information relating to the Property was provided by Seller and is accurate and complete to the best of Seller’s knowledge. Seller agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Company/Broker/Agent and the above-named MLS against any claims (including court costs and attorney’s fees) or other damages or expenses relating to an actual or alleged inaccuracy or incompleteness of the information provided by the Seller. Seller agrees that Broker/Agent will not be responsible for damage to personal or real property due to vandalism, theft, freezing water pipes, or any other damages or loss, including but not limited to death or personal injuries sustained on the Property, attorney fees, and court costs. If Property is to be vacant, Seller agrees to obtain vacancy insurance.

20. Mediation and Arbitration/ Waiver of Trial by Jury

All claims relating to this Agreement shall be submitted to mediation with a mutually agreed upon mediator within forty-five (45) days of notice of the claim. In the event no mediated resolution is reached within sixty (60) days of the party’s notice of the claim, all claims will be resolved by binding arbitration in Alabama. The parties shall work together in good faith to select one (1) mutually acceptable arbitrator, who is an Alabama licensed attorney in good standing with the State Bar of Alabama, to administer and conduct the arbitration. If the parties cannot mutually agree on an arbitrator, the arbitrator shall be selected as follows: Each party shall simultaneously exchange with the other party a list of three arbitrators acceptable to that party to administer and conduct the arbitration. If there is only one (1) arbitrator that is common to both lists, that arbitrator shall administer and conduct the arbitration. If there is more than one arbitrator that is common to both lists, the parties shall either mutually agree on which arbitrator shall be selected or flip a coin to select the arbitrator. If there is not initially a common arbitrator on the lists, the parties shall repeat the process by expanding their lists by two each time until there is a common name on the lists selected by the parties. The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the Alabama Supreme Court Commission on Dispute Resolution Guidelines for Arbitration Proceedings.

Each party acknowledges that (s)he is knowingly waiving the right to a trial by jury relating to all claims. All disputes concerning the arbitrability of any claim or the enforceability or scope of this provision will be subject to the same binding arbitration. The losing party will bear the cost of the arbitrator and any attorney’s fees incurred in pursuing or defending the claim or dispute; provided the arbitrator will have the authority to equitably apportion and award costs as a part of this award to the extent authorized by applicable law. The arbitrator will follow the law applicable to any such claim. The determination of the arbitrator will be final, binding on the parties, non-appealable, and may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction to enforce it. All claims shall be brought by a party in his or her individual capacity and not as a plaintiff or class member in any purported class or representative proceeding. The arbitrator may not consolidate more than one person’s claims and may not otherwise preside over any form of a representative or class proceeding. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the transactions contemplated by and relating to this Agreement, which may include the use of materials or components which are obtained from out-of-state, and which otherwise include the use of interstate mails, roadways and commerce, involve interstate commerce, as that term is defined in the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 2. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, this agreement to arbitrate shall not apply to: (1) any claim regarding the handling and disbursement of earnest money; and (2) any claim of Broker regarding the entitlement to or the non-payment of a real estate commission hereunder.

21. Sole Agreement

This is the sole agreement between the Parties. Any statements, representations, or promises not included in this Agreement or an attachment will be of no effect. Seller warrants that no prior agreement exists on the Property, whether a listing agreement, purchase agreement, or otherwise, that has not expired or been terminated. Any amendments must be in writing and signed by all Parties.
