

Welcome to 1802 Robinson, a spacious 3-bed, 2-bath home with an upstairs loft, located in historic Duncan Park, one of Natchez's safest and most charming neighborhoods. Just seconds from golf, disc golf, parks, and more, and close to downtown, this home offers endless storage, a private office with built-ins, a bright dining room, an updated kitchen, and a cozy living room with a wood-burning fireplace. The master suite is large with two closets plus an extra in the luxurious bathroom featuring a huge walk-in shower and vanity area. Guests will enjoy a convenient bedroom and bath setup, while the utility room offers even more space and outdoor access. Relax on the back porch and take in the peaceful setting and excellent curb appeal. Priced under $100/sqft, this is an incredible value — call your favorite realtor today before it's gone!
