

Welcome to 263 Airport Road. This home is absolutely stunning and one you must see for yourself to appreciate. The home has recently been totally remodeled on the interior and follows a Victorian theme. Featuring 4.07+/- acres in a super convenient, but rural-feeling area, you can enjoy both peace and quiet and also modern amenities close to town. The home is situated well off the road for extra privacy. Once you step inside, you're immediately greeted by the modern upgrades like gold pulls, fresh paint, quartz countertops, and more. The modern feel of this house is just what most folks are looking for. The kitchen and living area downstairs flow well. There are some personal touches you're sure to like, such as customized cabinetry interiors like spice racks, stainless steel appliances, a deep apron sink, shaker cabinets, and more. Upstairs, you'll find three guest rooms with a very nice guest bath, again displaying a modern vibe. The front guest bedroom has a storybook-inspired vaulted ceiling, which makes for a really unique feel. The master has a vaulted ceiling and even a loft that's currently used for storage. The master bath is follows the modern theme of the rest of the house and has a standalone tub. Outside, the wrap-around porch is perfect for sipping coffee and winding down. The backyard offers views of the treeline where deer are spotted grazing. The above-ground pool functions well and has been properly maintained to allow you to enjoy it on day one. There is a large shop on a concrete pad that can be used to house your toys, equipment, or any other items. The shop is approximately 12 years old and has also been maintained well.
