²

LEAD WARNING STATEMENT

³ Every purchaser of any interest in residential real property on which a residential dwelling was built prior to 1978 is notified that such ⁴ property may present exposure to lead from lead-based paint that may place young children at risk of developing lead poisoning. Lead
⁵ poisoning in young children may produce permanent neurological damage, including learning disabilities, reduced intelligence quotient,
⁶ behavioral problems, and impaired memory. Lead poisoning also poses a particular risk to pregnant women. The Seller of any interest
⁷ in residential real property is required to provide the Buyer with any information on lead-based paint hazards from risk assessments or ⁸ inspections in the Seller's possession and notify the Buyer of any known lead-based paint hazards. A risk assessment or inspection for ⁹ possible lead-based paint hazards is recommended prior to purchase.
