Welcome to the Ramsey Creek 67. This property is 67+- acres of beautiful mature pine timber with hardwoods along Ramsey Creek and another feeder creek. The property features a great secluded campsite at the end of the freshly graveled driveway. Power is also available to the property. The surrounding area is known to support some great deer and turkey numbers. Located just outside of Centreville, you are just around the corner from Vine's, where you can get supplies, food, and processed game. Liberty is also just a short drive away. The food plots on the property have several ways to enter each one, giving you strategic options as to how you want to chase that big buck or gobbling longbeard. Ramsey Creek provides a beautiful year-round water source for your wildlife and also offers a great place for the family to enjoy the creek's cool water during the summer. Properties in this area are very sought after, and at this price point, you can be sure it will grab some attention. Give your favorite realtor a call today!
