This Eastern Oregon recreational property sits less than half a mile from a paved, county-maintained road, offering both privacy and convenience. Located near Burns Butte and the locally known “Radar Base,” it provides quick access to essential amenities like groceries, gas, schools, and medical services. The acreage shows pride of ownership with a clean perimeter fence, juniper thinning’s, and varied elevation of around 280 feet. Covered primarily in juniper and native brush, it features multiple ideal spots for camping or building.

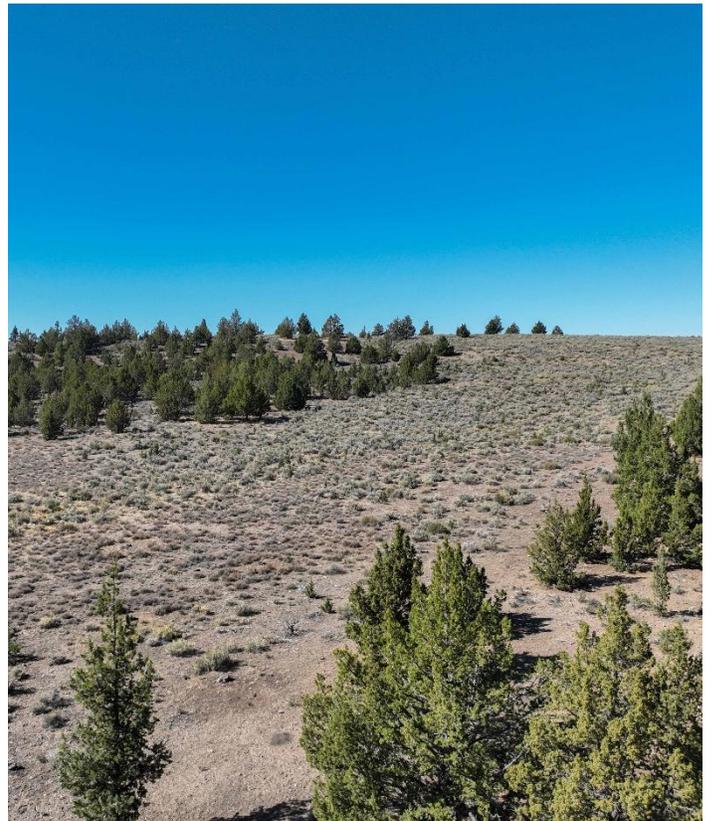

Bordering thousands of acres of BLM public land to the south and west, the property is perfectly suited for recreation, hunting, and as a basecamp. Located within the Silvies Hunting Unit allows eligibility for Land Owner Preference (LOP) tags for mule deer and elk. Additionally, its rural location ensures minimal light pollution, making it perfect for stargazing and enjoying the beautiful sunsets.

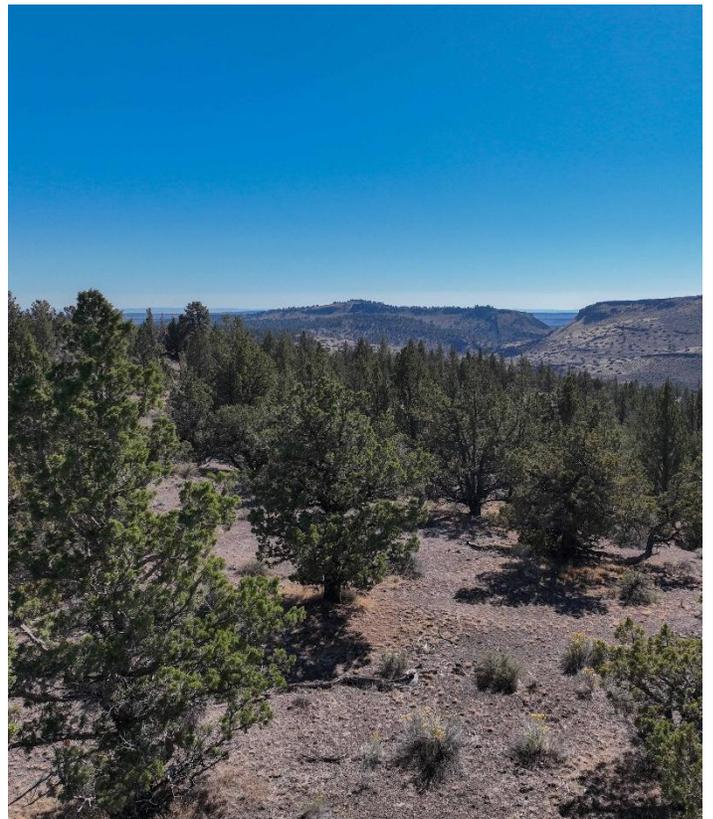

With the combination of natural beauty, recreational opportunities, great accessibility, and potential building opportunities, it would be an exceptional retreat for the weekend or future homestead.

Surrounding Area

Harney County, located in the expansive high deserts of rural Eastern Oregon, ranks as the 10th largest county in the United States, encompassing over 10,000 square miles. This vast area boasts diverse landscapes and abundant wildlife. At the southern tip of the county, one can marvel at the stunning vistas of Steens Mountain, which oversees the Alvord Desert & Trout Creek Mountains. The northern region features the Malheur National Forest, Silvies River, & timber country.

Wildlife abounds, ranging from large game such as elk, pronghorn, & mule deer to a variety of smaller critters and bird species typical of the Pacific Northwest. The county's primary community, Burns, is situated midway between Central Oregon & the Idaho Border. A two-hour trip to the west leads to Bend, while two hours east reaches the Idaho border and the Treasure Valley.
