

Brick home in the country for sale on a quiet dead end private Lane located about 2.5 miles west of McComb MS. This 2BR 2.5BA home has all new paint, floors, and fixtures. Features a large living room/dining room combination with an open floor plan and eating area, double garage and nice back porch. The home is situated behind a nice white vinyl fence lining the road and contains 1 acre of land. The big shaded back yard makes a perfect spot for kids or outdoor activities. There is also a full house fully automatic generator for piece of mind when the power may go out. The house was originally designed as a 3BR home but one of the bedrooms was converted to a huge walk in closet. The home could easily be converted back if needed because there is already a big closet in the master bedroom. Call today for a showing.
