

This beautiful 2015 home offers 5 bedrooms, 3.5 bathrooms, and 3,544 square feet of living space, all set on 19 acres of rolling pastureland in the North Pike School District. Tucked back off the road for privacy and quiet country living, the property features stunning views, fenced and cross-fenced acreage, and a small pond. Outdoor living is just as impressive as the home itself, with an inground saltwater pool and a spacious back porch complete with a fireplace and TV hookups—perfect for relaxing or watching the big game. The property also includes a 30x30 metal shop with eaves, a two-stall horse barn, and an additional storage shed, making it ideal for those who want space for hobbies, animals, or equipment. Inside, the home offers a dream layout designed for both comfort and entertaining. The large kitchen and dining area feature granite countertops, new modern appliances, wood flooring, and beautiful exposed wooden beams in the ceiling. The open floor plan flows seamlessly from the kitchen into a spacious living room highlighted by a cozy gas log fireplace. Just off the main entrance is a large formal dining room, perfect for hosting family gatherings or special occasions. Designed with families in mind, the home includes four bedrooms downstairs, including a huge primary suite with walk-in closets, a walk-in shower, his and her sinks, and a whirlpool jetted tub. Upstairs you'll find an additional bedroom with access to a fully floored, heated and cooled attic that features spray foam insulation and its own cooling vents—an uncommon and valuable feature. This exceptional home was originally built by a highly reputable local builder for his own residence, ensuring quality craftsmanship and attention to detail throughout. Although his situation changed, the outstanding quality of this gorgeous property remains. Call today to schedule a private showing of this remarkable home on 19 acres.
